JACOBITE WINS BAYSHORE.

C. R. ELLISON'S GOLDEN GARTER GELD-ING TAKES THE FEATURE.

Nicol Blamed for Defeat of Fort Johnson-Killiecrankie Scores at Long Odds-Whitney Stable's Awful Failure.

New York, September 17.—Insufferably hot, humid weather prevailed at the Brooklyn track to-day. It drove the people to the seashore and helped to augment the attendance. The solitary stake fixture, the Bayshore, under selling conditions at the short six furlongs, went to the second choice Jacobite, running for the first time in C. R. Ellison's colors. The winner was entered for $2,000 and not bid above his price.

The tabled history of the Bayshore Stakes is as follows:

Tom McGrath, the heaviest backed favorite of the day, was virtually eliminated as a contender at the start. Frank Lord swerved across him and knocked him out of it. It seemed certain that he would win, judging from the way the field was acting at the post.
The defeat of Harry Payne Whitney's pair of $10,000 three-year-old geldings, Westbury and Perseverance, in the closing affair at nine furlongs for maidens, furnished the sensation of the day. Walter Miller rode the winner, Pins and Needles, and so far out-maneuwered the two jockeys. Notter and Swain on the favorites, that he was able to beat them with a fifth-rate animal. It was the general opinion that Westbury hadn't been conditioned or prepared for a longer journey than six furlongs. His defeat was attributed to that as much as to his rider's stupidity. Swain was a joke on Perseverance. There were some big wagers placed on the Whitney entry at the almost prohibitive odds of 1 to 4.

The first race was easy for Momentum, the favorite, with Miller up.
The running of the second developed a big upset. Nicol encompassed the defeat of the favorite and best horse, Fort Johnson. Everybody agreed as to that. Antaeus, backed from 4 down to 5 to 2 ran like a cart horse. The colt's trainer, A. J. Joyner was absolutely speechless with astonishment as the race progressed.

First Premium showed what he was capable of doing with a change of riders from the impossible Booker to Racitke in the third race. He was the public's choice and almost backed off the boards. Old Honesty ran a dazzling race.

Barney Schreiber captured the long distance selling race with Killiecrankie. The stable liked her rehances it is said and Schreiber is said to have profited enormously by her victory. Mr. Schreiber was not present, however, to see his filly win. He is in California.

DID NOT FOUL DANDELION.

When Brookdale Nymph defeated Dandelion in the minium Handicap at Sheepshead Bay last Friday, one people thought she had interfered with Dandelion sufficiently to justify disqualification and ade unseemly noises about the matter. But after he race John E. Madden, who trains Dandelion and knows several things about racing, said: "Brookdale Nymph did not interfere enough with andelion to warrant disqualification. If I had een near the finish line I would not have permitted icol to go before the stewards, although the boy robably thought he was doing right in making a rotest. I do not want to win races that way and believe that it is not advisable to educate the acing public to look for disqualifications on the lightest pretext. The ruling of the stewards was erfectly just and I have absolutely no fault to nd."

find."
All this illustrates the very bad and incorrect criticism continually made over the work of the small riders around the metropolitan tracks by writers for the New York napers. If one credits these writers, such boys as Miller, Dugan, Nicol and others whose services are in constant demand and who continually do the best they can with what they have and ride conscientiously at all times and as well as any riders of their weight in the world, are mischievous, unruly, disobedient and even corrupt. Of course all this is the veriest sensational bosh.

NO ROSEBEN-COLIN RACE PROBABLE

has been given a thresome amount of misused space in the morning newspapers. It is weak nonsense. Colin is a two-year-old with many valuable engagements to meet, does not belong to a gambling owner and will almost certainly be retired after running out his engagements for horses of his own age at Belmont Park. Talk about a match between Roseben and Colinas been given a tiresome amount of misused space

MONTGOMERY FOR CALIFORNIA.

It is said that Montgomery will be well engaged in the Oakland Stakes and campaigned there through the coming meeting of 1907-'08. Montgomery is but few pounds behind the best three-year-olds of the year, and should prove a great attraction. So far as present indications go more good eastern horses will be sent to Oakland than has ever been the case previously.

He Interprets the Kentucky Racing Commission Law in the Right Way.

Lexington, Ky., September 17.—Judge Price was called upon to define the recent rule passed by the State Racing Commission relative to bookmaking owners. E. T. Graves, whose Sam Clay was carded to start in the opening race, is making book here, and when this was brought to the notice of Judge Price he ruled that Graves must either suspend his booking operations or refrain from running his horses. Graves elected to make book and Sam Clay was scratched. "The broad purpose of the rule as I construe it," said Judge Price, "is to prohibit any person from booking and racing at the same track. It has been suggested to me that the rule could be complied with if a bookmaker were merely compelled to turn his slate upon any one or more races in which he had a starter, but I believe that this would in a large measure, if not wholly, invalidate the purpose of the rule, and until the Kentucky Racing Commission instructs me to the contrary I shall hold that no bookmaker can race horses and make books at the same meeting."

Another big crowd witnessed the racing this afternoon. The sport was mediocre, cheaper class horses making up the card. Mclar and Dr. Spruill were the only winning favorites. The former was extensively supported by his owner, Bob Tucker, who reached here from Louisville especially to back his candidate.

The longest priced winner of the afternoon came with the running of the iffth race, a maiden affair at five furlongs, won by Galilico. This youngster made his debut under colors today and is owned by T. C. McDowell. As a suckling he was exhibited at the state fair and carried off the blue ribbon, The following year he won the same honor in the yearling class at the Blue Grass Fair. In his race today he gave promise of becoming a useful racer.

Belle Scott upset wise calculations by taking the measure of Mattle Mack in the third. There was considerable debay at the start on account of the remainder of the meeting for his failure to keep broke down badly.

Lamptrimmer, a frequent disappointment, managed to sec

CHACORNAC'S SIRE, JUVENAL, DEAD.

Chacornae's sire, Juvenal, was put to death not long since at Elmendorf Farm, near Lexington, Ky., on account of general debility. He was only eighteen years old, but he has been out of service for some time and of no use as a stock horse. Juvenal was a son of Springfield and Satire, by Blair Athol, and was a high-class stake winner in England. His best get outside of Chacornac were The Minute Man, Musette, Juvenalls; Florizel, Turquoise Blue, Juvenal Maxim, Satirist, Wool Gatherr and San Cecelia, and his daughters are highly prized as broodmares.

Another stallion which recently died at Elmendorf was the black horse, Calvados, also eighteen years old, and a son of the Derby winner, Galopin and Turn of the Tide, by Mandrake. Calvados hever raced, but with limited stud opportunities he sired a number of good winners, including Caldron, Valdos, Coming Event, Tom Sharkey, Queen Nubia, Seven Up and Mexicana.

Recently during a storm in one of the Elmendorf paddocks the bay filly, Fatigue, by Star Ruby, dam Winema, by Uneas, became frightened and in

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Lally is the principal money earner among the English horses and up to August 26 had won $57, 775, a sum exceeded by several American horses.

John Mackey is quoted by the California papers as saying that the weanling colt by Royal Flush III.—Briar Sweet will prove the equal of any thoroughbred ever owned by J. B. Haggin.

On the two meetings held at the Bay this year the Coney Island Jockey Club has, it is said, earned more than $500,000 net. The racing has been wonderfully patronized at this popular track.

To get an idea of the American method of breeding, keeping and developing thoroughbreds, Le Prince Henri du Croy of Brussels, Belglum, is at Lexington on a flying trip. The prince operates a large stable of racehorses in his native country, doing most of his racing at Brussels and Antwerp.

Some of these days Gravesend will be cut up into building lots and the Brooklyn Jockey Club will build a magnificent racecourse in Nassau county several miles beyond Belmont Park. At least that is the program mapped out, although P. J. Dwyer is not ready to admit that the passing of Gravesend is near at hand.

The tale comes from Lexington that on accoun of the scarcity of riders there jockey T. by the writer of the tale is novel to say the least. Cormack, the successful American jockey who has ridden this season in France for M. E. Veil-Picard, will probably give up his profession at the close of the present season and return to America. He went over a few season ago as lightweight to the Rothschild stable. He rode sixty-one winners last year and steered Clyde to victory for M. E. Veil-Picard in the French Oaks of 1905.

Picard in the French Oaks of 1905.

Master John Henderson, loaded with tanglefoot and a big gun, tackled John E. Madden a few days ago with a demand for immediate settlement of an alleged debt. Madden diplomatically gave in and tendered a $100 bill, requesting change. This the boy could not produce and while the two were out ostensibly seaching for it Madden contrived to run the boy into the custody of a policeman. The revolver was found to be fully loaded.

JUDGE PRICE ON THE NEW RULE. EXCELLENT RACING AT TORONTO.

Ypsilanti Appears in the Sandringham Plate and Is Beaten.

Toronto, Ont., September 17.—Stirring contests were in order at Woodbine this afternoon. An excellent program was provided, the features of which were the Sandringham Plate, the Epsom Handicap and the Ringwood Handicap, the latter a mile and a half race for hunters. Five of the seven events resulted in driving finishes, with the winners first home by small margins.

Considerable interest was attached to the running of the Sandringham Plate, from the fact that Ypsilanti was a starter. Ypsilanti is the Americanhered horse that showed such high-class form in England, where he was rated as the best handicap horse in training. He has to his credit the winning of the Great Diamond Jubilee Stakes two years in succession, and in all the big handicaps this year he was assigned top weight.

Ypsilanti was bred at the Walden farm at Middleburg, Maryland, and arrived in this country only three weeks ago. It was generally known that he was not up to a bruising contest and for this reason received but little consideration in the speculation. It was the horse himself that the people wanted to see and, although he failed to show any sensational speed in his race, still he impressed horsemen here. His owner intends to retire him to the stud.

The Epsom Handicap, the richest event on the

The Epsom Handicap, the richest event on the program, was won by the American-owned horse Charlie Eastman, which carried top weight. He was ridden by V. Powers. He came from behind and after a great stretch drive, got up in the last sixteenth and won going away. There were three added starters in this race, Rollicking Girl, Miniota and George S. Davis.

The closing event went to the long shot, Black Hawk, which won after a hard drive. Murphy, who had the mount on Suderman, which finished second, claimed foul against the winner, but it was not allowed.

Among today's arrivals at the track were Henry Among today's arrivals at the track were Henry Mason, J. L. Hayman and J. Cooper, the latter with the division of the stable which Barney Schreiber is racing on the Canadian circuit.

DEY DEL CAREDES' GOOD DAUGHTER

Except for a very few representatives in outof-the-way places, the male line from Lexington firek to Diomed is practically extinct in this country. But a great-grandson of Lexington is making a great stir in Ireland because of the speed he confers on his progeny. This horse is Americus, by Emperor of Norfolk—Clara D., by Glenelg. He was bred by E. J. Baldwin and raced successfully in this country as Rey del Caredes, then was taken to England by Richard Croker, when his name was changed to Americus. When Americus was done with racing there Mr. Croker leased him to an Italian breeder. In Italy his success in the stud was so pronounced that Mr. Croker recalled him for service in his own Glencairn stud. A daughter of his, the two-year-old filly, Americus Girl, belonging to E. P. Gall, is held to be the best of her age and sex in Ireland. In her first three starts she won the Drogheda Memorial at the Curragh, Baldoyle Foal Stakes at Baldoyle, and the Leopardstown Grand Prize at Leopardstown. These are three of the richest prizes of the Irish turf for two-year-olds. Old Lexington will be grandly avenged on the American breeders if this expatriated descendent of his should eventually sire an Epsom Derby winner.

NEW ONTARIO JOCKEY CLUB LICENSES

GREENER'S PROMISING YEARLINGS.

John G. Greener is banking on four yearlings of which he is the possessor to do great things for him next year. One of promise is a colt by Ornus—Blue and White, by Virgil, bred on nearly the lines of Oiseau. A strapping colt by The Commoner is also held in high favor.

NO DEAD BEATS ON BELGIAN TRACK.

A novelty introduced on a newly established race course in the vicinity of Brussels, Belgium, is taking an instantaneous photograph of each finish. Presumably no such thing as a dead heat can occur at that track.

ARCADIA TRACK A SURETY.

SCHREIBER, ROSE AND BALDWIN EM-PLOY A. M. ALLEN TO BUILD IT.

Expect To Race Over New Course December 1-Complete List of Oakland Stakes-Futurity and Derby Conditions.

Los Angeles, Cal., September 17.—The Arcadia track is to be built. Barney Schreiber and George Rose will hold a controlling interest in it and the plant will be finished in time for racing, possibly by December 1, next, but certainly before Christ-by December 1, next, but certainly before Christmas,

This much was settled yesterday when Messrs.
Rose and Schreiber made the first payment to E. J.
Baldwin for the land on which the great racing plant is to be situated. The price paid for the land—160 acres—was more than $1.000 an acre, but not much more. E. J. Baldwin takes some stock as part payment, but less than one-third. Baldwin needs money more than he needs land or race tracks.

A. M. Allen, builder of the later Chicago tracks needs money more than he needs land or race tracks.

A. M. Allen, builder of the later Chicago tracks and every great racing plant in the west, is to begin operations at once, taking full charge, of the construction work. He promises to have a practical racing plant ready for operation by December I, the present date selected for the opening of the new race track. The track will be named Santa Anita, and the club will be known as the New Los Angeles Jockey Club.

According to contractor Allen, the work that has been done thus far at Baldwin Park is not of much effect, as it has not been done along lines that he considers proper in building a race track in a limited time.

Schreiber has come to Los Angeles to stay until Christmas, at least, he says, and has moved from the Van Nuys Hotel to apartments on South Olive street.

Street.
Schreiber still holds to the opinion that the track can be completed within the time left for holding a winter meeting to begin December 1.

NEW UNITED HUNTS RACE TRACK.

NEW UNITED HUNTS RACE TRACK.

New York, September 17.—Work on the new course of the United Hunts Racing Association, opposite the Belmont Park track, is now nearly completed. The carpenters will be through on the grandstand in two or three days, giving ample time for the painters to do their part. The stand will accommodate 2,000 persons, and is well situated to give a good view of the course.

The steeplechase course has been laid out for some time. It is irregular in shape and about one mile and a half around. The jumps have not yet been put in place, but superintendent Gorman, who has charge of the construction, will make short work of this feature.

An innovation in race track construction will be disclosed by the track for flat races being on the inside of the steeplechase course. At other courses it is just the reverse. The track for flat races is one mile in circumference, laid out on turf, and naturally does not follow the outline of the steeplechase course. The plant will be a pretty one of the bijou order when completed.

BORGHESI FAILED TO "ROLL HOME."

New York, September 17.—Of all the hot tips that have been circulated in the metropolitan paddocks this year that which made Rudolph Spreckels' Borghesi a sure thing in the fifth race at Sheepshead Bay a few days ago was unquestionably the worst. Just who was responsible for it nobody could say, but the fact remains that nearly all the trainers had the old Brutus horse for a real good thing, and some of the smartest bettors at the track fell with a dull, sickening thud. Borghesi, since coming here from California, had shown nothing in public, but the ancient racer, it is said, worked so fast the other morning that the clockers could not believe their watches. Early in the tongue, the old fellow is night!" I said Tem Welch.

day, therefore, Borghesi was on the tip of the tongue.

"If the old fellow is right," said Tom Welsh, "he will win easily."
"Borghesi will roll home," said Frank Taylor, who trains for the Patchogue Stable.
"It is between Borghesi and Tony Bonero," said Reger Minton, who handles Right Royal and other horses owned by Sam Lazarus, "The dope in the race is clear to me. Clare Russell cannot go the route, a mile and a sixteenth. Neither can Mark Antony II."

Then horsemen and public plunged on Borghesi, backing him from 5 to 3 to 1, and he ran fifth in a six horse field twenty lengths behind Mark Antony II., the winner and "gaining slowly" at the end. Borghesi, however, may use the speed he showed in his work later.

SMITH MAY TRAIN FOR BUTLER.

New York, September 17.—James Butler, promoter of the recent Youkers meeting, intends to collect a stable for racing next year. He is said to have offered the position of trainer to T. P. Hayes, who is said to have declined and suggested John D. Smith, of Lexington, Ky., as a good man for the place. Smith trained for his brother-in-law, the late Byron McClelland, at times, as well as for others and himself, baving at one time and another charge of such well known good ones as Bardolph, Maclyor, His Lordship, Jack Rattlin, June Gayle, King Leif, Macco, Lillian Bell and Ways and Means.

Went to post at 3:30. At post 3 minutes. Start bad. Won easily; second driving; third the same. Selle Scott, away fast and well handled, was restrained for the first three furlongs, moved up fast thereafter and won well in hand. Mattle Mack moved up resolutely when clear, but was not good enough to beat the winner. Ada Rice, almost left at the post, showed a tremendous flight of speed, but tired near the end. Aline Crockett tired fast after a brief display of speed. My Queen of the Roses propped at the barrier's rise and was left, is a good looker and has shown fast preliminary trials.

70978 FOURTH RACE—3-4 Mile. (70936—1:12½—3—108.) Purse $400. 3-year-olds and upward. Selling. Net value to winner $300.

Winner-Blk, g, by Allan-a-Dale—Gaillard III. (trained by J. Ross).
Went to post at 4:34. At post 3 minutes. Start bad. Won easily; second driving; third the same.
Gallico, showing much the most speed and clear of interference all the way, was never in danger of defeat and won with plenty in reserve. Ordono began slowly and, moving up steadily all the way, finished gamely, but was not good enough to beat the winner today. Addax showed a good flight of early speed, but tired slightly near the end and will improve. Enlist closed a big gap after going wide on the stretch turn. Tackle tired after going a half and can do much better. Merrifield, given a listless ride and away poorly, ran far below his best form.

Scratched—70020 Albert Fanz, 106.

Winner—B. h, by Dutch Roller—Mabel D., by St. Blaise (trained by J. McCullough).

Went to post at 5:05. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving; third the same.

Dr. Spruill ran as if much the best and, aided by a clear course all the way, won with plenty in reserve.

Suzanne Rocamora came from a long way back in the last half, saved much ground when coming into the stretch and ran a good race. Doubt suffered from interference on the first turn, closed up a big gap in the last half and finished with a rush. Benora ran fairly well under poor riding. Kohnoflaw was knocked back on the first turn and forced to go wide most of the way. Sea Mate and Mathis were prominent in the early stages, but quit after going a half. Roger S. was almost thrown at the three-quarter post. The winner was entered for $200; no bid.

Overweights—Benora, 4\(\frac{1}{2}\) pounds; Corral, 1.

Winner—Br. g, by Sorcerer—Balance II. (trained by T. Welsh).

Went to post at 2:29. At post 6 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second and third driving. Momentum decisively outbroke, outpaced and outstayed the others, was not entirely keyed up and will insorove. Belle of Iroquois maintained nearest pursuit of the winner throughout and ran a surprisingly good race. Rockstone, away badly, closed up steadily into a fast going third. Green Seal was in prominent contention to the last sixteenth, where he tired as if short. Golden West, after forward and persistent pursuit of the pacemaker, was crowded out right at the end af forced to pull up. Sir Toddington was shuffled back in the first quarter and closed up rapidly at the end. Don Enrique, flatfooted and repeatedly pulled up, was finally carried hopelessly wide and had no chance to get up. Berwick was squeezed out at the start. The winner was entered for $1.300; no bid.

Went to post at 2:59. At post 4 minutes. Start straggling. Won driving; second and third the same. Halket, from a striding start, ran in nearest and most persistent pursuit of the pacemaker and, despite going very wide in the stretch, wore him down finally. Fort Johnson outbroke and outpaced the others easily for the first half and finally ifred and swerved into defeat. C. W. Burt, away badly, closed a big gap and took third place in a superior effort. Queen Marguerite ran prominently throughout and held on gamely. Antaeus, badly outrun for the first half, was gaining slowly at the end. Live Wire broke well, but tired after three furlongs of near attendance on the pacemaker and was heavily bandaged before and behind.

Winner—Ch. c, by Gorman—Premium (trained by J. W. Fuller).

Went to post at 3:25. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. First Premium, from a lucky start, ran in close pursuit of the pacemaker from the start, drew out under pressure in the stretch and won ridden out. Old Honesty ran within striking distance from the start, closed up in sensational style right at the end and ran a cracking race. Orbicular drew out quickly and made the running to midway of the stretch before he succumbed, put up a very game finish and probably was short. Altuda, shuffled back early, closed a big gap in the last half and finished like a shot. Wellost the stretch before he succumbed, put up a very game finish and probably was poorly, closed up slowly and finished a fast going fifth. Zienap closed a big gap in the last half and is extra good. Tipping, crowded back early and pulled up, made up much ground in the last three-quarters. Yankee Girl ran poorly.

Winner—B. g, by Golden Garter—Flora Mac (trained by G. P. Brazier).

Went to post at 3:53. At post 5 minutes. Start straggling. Won easily; second and third driving. Jacobite, from a lucky start, indulged Lady Anne with a brief lead, then drew out and won as his rider plersed the remainder of the way. Security, on the inside and crowded back, went wide finally and got up for second place in a whirlwing finish. Tom McGrath, nearly left, closed an immense early gap and ired finally. Lotus broke slowly, but steadily improved her position into a fast going fourth and is becoming extra good. Lady Anne, after reliquishing an early lead, held on gamely in the closing struggle. Edna Jackson, never dangerous, but away poorly in close quarters on the inside, finished well. Aeronaut, nearly left, made up some ground in the last half. Frank Lord is still far from fit and will do to watch. The winner was entered for $1,000; no bid.

Went to post at 4:23. At post 1 minute. Start straggling. Won easily; second and third driving. Killiecrankle was patiently reserved in lucky forward pursuit of the pacemakers to the stretch and wore them down decisively at the end. Woolstone helped force the pace and drew out in the stretch like the winner, but succumbed quickly and finished tiring badly. Aster'd'or set the pace hard held for nearly a mile, then tired and was forced out of position and pulled up and came again very gamely. Red Friar, well up from the start, finished fast and is good. Flavigny was shut off repeatedly and closing up like a shot at the end. Missouri Lad, away poorly, had a good position in the middle running, but failed unex-
